ORDER

JUNIOR VLADIMIR JIMENEZ-CASTILLO, :

Defendant. :

-----X

SIDNEY H. STEIN, U.S.D.J.:

WHEREAS, defendant wishes to plead guilty before a Magistrate Judge;

WHEREAS, in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the proceeding is scheduled to take place remotely;

WHEREAS the Court understands that the assigned Magistrate Judge shall hear the defendant's plea by telephone because videoconferencing is not reasonably available;

WHEREAS the CARES Act and findings made by the Judicial Conference of the United States and Chief Judge Colleen McMahon of the Southern District of New York allow for guilty pleas to be taken by phone or video, subject to certain findings made by the presiding District Judge;

WHEREAS the offense of conviction carries no mandatory minimum sentence and thus it is possible that the Court may impose a sentence of time served.

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS, that because the defendant, after consultation with counsel, has consented to proceeding remotely, the plea proceeding cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice.

SO ORDERED:

Sidney H. Stein, U.S. District Judge
